

Chapter 4: Championship Fathering - Discussion Questions:
Love 101

1. Which of the following would you find awkward? Why?

- Saying, "I love you" to your best friend
- Writing, "Love, Dad" at the end of a note to your child
- Saying, "I love God" to a coworker
- Saying, "I love you" to your teenage son
- Saying, "I love you" to your teenage daughter
- Saying, "I love you" to your wife

2. Do you agree or disagree with these statements? Why?

- "Loving is responsible and deliberate beneficial action on behalf of another."
- "Whether it's loving as husbands or as fathers, we tend to think it's going to be too hard to figure out. So we give up."
- "I don't think the problem is that men don't have feelings. We're just not used to identifying them or talking about them."
- "We can't love better than we've been loved."
- "You can practice love when you don't feel a thing!"
